In 2018-19, the Association of Classical Christian Schools (ACCS) sponsored a parallel survey with the University of Notre Dame to append ACCS member school alumni to the Cardus data. About 300 alumni ages 24-42 from six groups (Public, Prep, Catholic, Evangelical, Homeschool, and ACCS) were surveyed.

The results were published in a comparative study report titled “Good Soil” and serve as the source of data for this brochure.

AT ACACIA:

Ephesians 6:4 encourages parents to bring up children in the paideia of the Lord. This is the training of the whole person in character, faith, and knowledge. Education is certainly integral to this discipleship process. Acacia Academy, in partnership with parents, strives to help students be deeply rooted in Truth, Goodness, and Beauty that they might thrive and produce the fruit of Wisdom, Virtue, and Grace. The survey results indicate the potential positive impact of a Classical Christian Education.

THE BENEFITS OF

Classical CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

“Continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.”
